

Who we are...

The mission of PHILABUNDANCE is to drive hunger from our communities today and to end hunger for good. We accomplish this through food distribution, reducing food waste, increasing access to nutritious meals, and tackling the root causes of hunger.

We utilize a network of 300+ partner agencies in our nine-county service area throughout Southeastern Pennsylvania (Bucks, Chester, Delaware, Montgomery, and Philadelphia) and Southern New Jersey (Burlington, Camden, Gloucester, and Salem) to distribute food to our neighbors in need. In 2020 and 2021 we distributed over 50,000,000 pounds of food, doubling our pre-pandemic output. With the help of our supporters, we strive each day to make sure no family, child, or senior struggles to find food.

Don't know where to start?

FREEWILL CAN HELP!

Philabundance has entered into a partnership with FreeWill, which offers a no-cost estate planning tool tailored to your needs. We hope you utilize this resource to make an important task a bit easier.

FreeWill has helped over 250,000 Americans create an estate plan. This partnership makes estate planning free and accessible to our Philabundance family and takes less than 20 minutes to complete.

PHILABUNDANCE

Help ensure future generations have the food and resources needed to thrive by making Philabundance a part of your estate plans.

Like so many of our supporters, you want to know that the causes and organizations you care about today are there to help many people in the future. Estate planning helps to ensure that your assets are shared in a way that best aligns with your values, and provides an opportunity to show future generations how much you care about those in need.

Estate gifts, or planned gifts, are easy to implement and can provide you with significant financial and tax benefits, all while making a major and long-lasting impact in the community. You can include Philabundance as a beneficiary in your will, charitable gift annuities, trusts, and many other estate planning vehicles.

To discuss how you can best support Philabundance and our work, email giving@philabundance.org. For specific questions regarding tax benefits and your estate, please consult your tax advisor.

If you have already included Philabundance in your estate plans, please let us know! We are grateful to those donors who want to ensure a bright future for Philabundance and our work, and are honored to have you join our legacy society - as long as there are hungry people in our community, your support will ensure that Philabundance is there to serve them.

Ways to Give, NOW AND IN THE FUTURE

In addition to traditional cash gifts, there are many other ways you can support Philabundance with an estate or planned gift – some can provide a benefit today, and others in the future:

Charitable Bequest

Making a gift through your will or living trust is one of the easiest ways to impact the future. You can include language designating Philabundance (or any number of your favorite charities) as a recipient in your estate. There are several options you may have with a charitable bequest and we recommend consulting with your tax or legal advisor for what works best for you.

Beneficiary Designation

Retirement plans, annuities, and life insurance policies may let you decide in advance how your assets will be distributed. You can choose to designate Philabundance through these plans.

IRA Qualified Charitable Distribution

If you are 70 ½ years old or older, every year you can ask your IRA Administrator to transfer up to $100,000 to go directly to a non-profit organization of your choice. Because your gift goes directly to a qualified charity, the IRA distribution is excluded from your adjusted gross income and will offer tax benefits for you.

Stock

Maximize your gift and income tax deduction by donating stock. By donating stock directly to Philabundance, you can avoid recognition of capital gain and eliminate any income tax resulting from the sale of the stock.

Create a long-lasting impact in the community.
